

CLASS: JOURNALISM
INSTRUCTOR: MRS. PACK
CLASSROOM: J-203

COURSE SYLLABUS : 2022-2023

COURSE OBJECTIVES / EXPECTATIONS

The course of Journalism is designed to teach students the various forms of journalism, history of journalism, law and ethics, application and analysis of media, as well as strengthening writing skills. There will be a strong focus in writing production and multimedia production. Students are expected to participate in and out of the classroom in order to fulfill the requirements of certain assignments such as conducting interviews, taking pictures, researching, etc.

MATERIALS NEEDED

- One 1-inch binder
- Two flip-notebooks (For Interviewing unit)
- Loose-leaf paper
- Four tabs labeled in the binder:
 - Information
 - Projects
 - Vocabulary (lined paper placed in this section)
 - Notes (lined paper placed in this section)
- Blue or black pen or pencil (no colored pens will be used for assignments or tests/quizzes unless otherwise stated)
- Red Pen (for grading only)

TECHNOLOGY

All high school students are required to have a fully charged, fully functioning laptop in class each day. Cell phones and other tablets are not acceptable devices. Students will be assigned a number and will be required to place their cellphones in the designated area for the duration of the class unless otherwise stated by the teacher.

EVALUATION / CATEGORY WEIGHTS

Evaluation during the quarter will include classwork, homework assignments, quizzes, tests, and projects. Any tests will be assigned with at least a week's notice; however, quizzes may be given with or without notice. Grading percentages are as follows:

Tests/Projects	25%
Quizzes	20%
Assignments	15%
Class Participation	40%

Assignments are to be turned in at the beginning of class on the due dates. Late work received by 3:15 on the day it is due will be 10 points or 10% off; if received the next day, it will be considered two days late and 20 points or 20% will be taken off, etc. Some assignments will not receive late credit. If no late credit will be awarded to an assignment, an announcement will be made prior to the assignment due date.

Note: The school has obtained a program called TurnItIn. This program is used to detect plagiarism and will be implemented with most papers and assignments given in grades 7-12.

CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS

- Plagiarism of any assignment is strictly prohibited and will result in a '0' and discipline according to the school handbook.
- All materials are expected to be brought to class unless otherwise noted. Random materials checks will be given throughout the year for a grade.
- It is the STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO GET WORK MISSED DUE TO ANY ABSENCE. Students are responsible to check Canvas as well as the "While You Were Out" folder for any missed work.

- Assignments will be subject to the above-stated deduction per day; no major assignments or test make-ups will be accepted after one week past the due date without approval.
- Class discussion is extremely important. Each student is expected to keep up with all assignments and contribute to the class discussion as much as possible.
- Students are expected to wear their “Press Passes” when working on assignments on the school campus. These will be given at the beginning of the year and must be kept in the class binder. Random “Press Pass” checks will be given for a grade.
- It is expected that students understand that some of the assignments that are given throughout the course will be required to be done outside of the classroom. It is the responsibility of the student to plan accordingly.
- All assigned questions are to be answered in COMPLETE SENTENCES unless stated otherwise.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

- It is expected that every student will conduct himself or herself in an orderly, courteous manner at all times with prompt and respectful obedience to all school personnel, following all adult directions without comment. If a student questions a teacher’s decision, he/she should speak to the teacher privately after class. At that time, he/she should respectfully explain the situation and wait for the teacher’s response.
- It is expected that every student will respect the feelings and rights of others. This includes students, teachers, and visitors.
- It is expected that every student will conduct himself or herself in an honest manner, avoiding such actions as lying, stealing, and cheating.
- It is expected that every student will be on time for each class and be prepared with a proper mental attitude and all their necessary materials and assigned work.
- It is expected that every student understands that the teacher’s desk, computer, and other personal belongings and work area is personal property and will be treated as such.
- It is expected that every student will remain in compliance with the classroom teacher’s rules, policies, and procedures.

DISCIPLINE PROCEDURES

- The student will receive a verbal warning the first time.
- The student will receive a written warning the second time that will be sent home to the parents via FACTS and a conference may be requested.
- The teacher will assign a penalty to the student in the form of detention, written assignment, or other discipline deemed appropriate if there is a third occurrence of discipline issues.
- The teacher may refer the student to the Administration if a fourth incident arises.
